Maxine M. Chesney |

The plaintiffs have filed a motion seeking permission to use a number of PowerPoint slides in aid of their arguments at the October 29 hearing regarding the government's motion to dismiss plaintiffs' amended complaint.

Upon consideration of the plaintiffs' motion, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

The plaintiffs shall be permitted to display and use PowerPoint slides as part of their presentation, scheduled to take place on Friday, October 29, in opposition to the government's motion to dismiss plaintiffs' amended complaint. Plaintiffs shall be permitted to bring into the courtroom and use such computer and monitor equipment necessary to make the PowerPoint slides visible to the Court and to the government lawyers.

Nothing in this Order shall prevent the government from objecting at the October 29th hearing to the use of a particular slide, where such an objection may be appropriate.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
